

The Basics of Archives will help you with your...

These issues and more face the staff and volunteers who work in historical societies, libraries, museums, and archives every day!

The Basics of Archives can help you learn how to deal with these challenges.

Funding for Washington Archives Month Basics of Archives workshops is provided by the Washington State Historical Records Advisory Board (WSHRAB) and the National Historical Publications and Records Commission.

This workshop was developed with funding from the federal Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS). The project was administered by the American Association for State and Local History and staffed by

Washington State Historical Records Advisory Board,
Washington State Archives,
National Archives Pacific-Alaska
Region, Center for Pacific Northwest Studies and the Heritage Resource Center

A PRACTICAL, ONE-DAY WORKSHOP

All Workshops: 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The Basics of Archives is for people who work or volunteer in organizations that deal with the past—whether it's a museum, historic house, the city clerk's office, the library's local history room, a historic site, or a college archives. You'll get practical advice, sample forms and policies, and learn basic practices you need to follow so that you can collect, protect, and help people use the historical treasures in your care.

In this workshop you'll learn:

- What historical records are—and aren't.
- How to decide what to keep.
- How to make sure you have legal title to your collections.
- How to handle collections when you get them so you know what you have and how to locate collections.
- How to protect your collections from theft.
- How to deal with copyright issues.
- What tools you need to create to help users find the information in your collections.
- How to take care of historical records to ensure their preservation and accessibility into the future.
- How to let the public know what you have and how to get people excited about using your collections.

The Basics of Archives Workshop

Do you need to take care of historical records—but you're not a trained archivist?

What's the right thing to do with those diaries, cassette tapes, hand-drawn maps, tin-type photographs, and family letters in your collection?

Where can you go to get advice?
